The Lion and the Unicorn Award for Excellence in North American Poetry Philosophy and tomfoolery are equally at home in this exemplary new volume of poetry. These entertaining poems explore everything from love and conformity to the nature of time. Lawson stretches the boundaries of various poetic forms to create verses that are at turns humorous and thought provoking. Whats left of me? Whats right of me? Youre hungered by the sight of me. I need whats left, so do whats right and please dont take another bite. FROM THE BOOK
