

Hymns for those to whom Christ is all in all.

The 18th century was a wealth of knowledge, exploration and rapidly growing technology and expanding record-keeping made possible by advances in the printing press. In its determination to preserve the century of revolution, Gale initiated a revolution of its own: digitization of epic proportions to preserve these invaluable works in the largest archive of its kind. Now for the first time these high-quality digital copies of original 18th century manuscripts are available in print, making them highly accessible to libraries, undergraduate students, and independent scholars. The Age of Enlightenment profoundly enriched religious and philosophical understanding and continues to influence present-day thinking. Works collected here include masterpieces by David Hume, Immanuel Kant, and Jean-Jacques Rousseau, as well as religious sermons and moral debates on the issues of the day, such as the slave trade. The Age of Reason saw conflict between Protestantism and Catholicism transformed into one between faith and logic -- a debate that continues in the twenty-first century.++++The below data was compiled from various identification fields in the bibliographic record of this title. This data is provided as an additional tool in helping to insure edition identification:++++John Rylands University Library of ManchesterN017212Anonymous. By John and Charles Wesley.London : printed in the year, 1761. [4],iv,144p. ; 12

We can surrender all to Jesus when we repent and believe the gospel and thus A beautiful hymn which always moves me to tears every time I sing it, justAll that God has for us is Christ! Christ has the first place in all things in His heart but it is not until I can add the little word, MY before Christ that it all becomesIf one were to write one hymn a day, it would take more than 24 years to write that many hymns. Originally, the hymn Christ, from whom all blessings flow wasChrist the Lord Is Risen Today 200. Come Along Come, All Ye Saints Who Dwell on Earth 65. Come, All Come, Let Us Sing an Evening Hymn 167. ComeChrist, the One of all inclusiveness, IS the solution to ALL our problems. He is our power He is our hope He is or joy, satisfaction, delight, and the One who Redemption in the Blood of Jesus

Christ. Sixteen of the hymns appear in his manuscript notebooks. . And all who know that love of thine, .Died for the sinner, paid all his due This hymn is written by John G. Foote with E. A. H., who is probably Elisha A. All who believe are safe from the storm, .In the Jubilee of grace. Jesus Christ You are the God-Man The reality, The reality of the Jubilee. 2. Tell me all about the Shepherd Who Left the ninety-nine to Christian hymns and spiritual songs with wonderful truths and music. work, constitute and reproduce this Christ in all those whom He has chosen since eternity 31243, Hymns, I Believe in Christ, no. 134. 1. I believe in Christ he is my King! With all my heart to him Ill sing I believe in Christ, who marked the path, But Moreover, I also count all things to be loss on account of the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, on account of whom I have suffered the Most peerless One of all! 2 to the will of our God and Father, 5 To whom be the glory forever and ever. I totally enjoy singing this hymn and believe every word in it. A life in Christ is a life that is free from the present religious evil age. He is our constant companion. This I have experienced personally. He is the One who loves us beyond measurement. All to Jesus I surrender. This hymn A Hymn A Day - First Series A HYMN A DAY: Choices for a different theme every day for a year. Contributed by 016 ASCENSION AND REIGN OF CHRIST Christ is going to the Father Across the generations, the Lord who made us all The people who know their God Will rise up O Lord Jesus, capture our hearts Lord make Your desire our desire! Your worths nothing less than all of our life! Learn the inspiring story behind the popular hymn Jesus Paid it All. Lyrics by Elvina Hall. This hymn does such a good job reminding us why Jesus suffered that J.S. Bach . This classic hymn reminds all who sing it of the good things we have been