

Connecticut Insurance Law

Now issued as an annual paperback and in e-Pub format, Adobe Digital Editions (pc and mac). The digital edition is in e-pub format, with thousands of hyperlinks to the full text of cases, statutes and other authoritative content. Connecticut Insurance Law provides an understanding of insurance coverage issues in Connecticut, as well as a starting point for addressing the issues the practitioner may be facing. This book focuses on the following topics: Principles of Insurance Policy Interpretation Insurance Contracts Third-Party (Liability) Coverage First Party (Life and Property) Coverage Uninsured and Under insured Motorist Coverage Excess and Umbrella Coverage Reinsurance Litigation of Coverage Disputes

Your options for pursuing a car accident injury lawsuit will depend on the insurance laws of the state. Learn about Connecticut's fault-based CT Insurance Department Web Site Updates. Laws & Regulations Reports Thank you for visiting the Connecticut Insurance Department Web site. You will In Connecticut, you are required to have liability car insurance at the following minimum limits: $25,000 for bodily injury, per person per accident. $50,000 for bodily injury, total per accident. $25,000 for property damage per accident. An in-depth look at minimum car insurance requirements for Connecticut vehicles, and other Connecticut auto insurance rules. up to age 26, under a parents individual or group health insurance plan. Answer: Connecticut law does not apply to your plan, because self-insured plans are The Connecticut anti-rebating law is very broad. Connecticut General Statutes Section 38a-825 provides in part No insurance company The Insurance Company provided a list of repair shops to me. Is that legal? Yes, but you are under no obligation to take your car to one of the Connecticut Law About Health Care: useful links to statutes, OLR reports and websites concerning health care, health insurance, patients rights, and access to The law requires a minimum amount of $20,000 per person and $40,000 per accident. Before January 1, 1994, Connecticut had a no-fault insurance law that required private passenger motor vehicle owners to purchase a basic reparations coverage benefit of $5,000. Mutually Assured Protection Among Large U.S. Law Firms Tom Baker and Rick Congratulations to the newly elected Connecticut Insurance Law Journal Liability insurance covers bodily injury to other people and damage is required by law, but drivers are strongly urged to consider higher limits. Employers have no obligation under Connecticut law to offer life insurance to their employees. However, if group life insurance is among the benefits offered to In Connecticut, there are several laws that prohibit insurance fraud. Insurance fraud consists of intentionally providing false or misleading material information or 38a-175 to 38a-229 Chapter 698b Prepaid Legal Services 38a-903 to 38a-974 Chapter 705 Connecticut Insurance Information and Privacy Protection Act The Law Connecticut law requires that any motor vehicle registration that has not been canceled must have liability insurance. If your Laws and Regulations Abstract: Copies of the Insurance An official copy of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies may be purchased