

TO FIND HOPE - MOTHER TERESA

What can one committed Christian accomplish in a world of great need? The story of Mother Teresa, now approaching the ten-year anniversary of her death, provides a glowing example. Known as the Missionary of Charity, she served the destitute of Calcutta, India, winning the Nobel Peace Prize and speaking boldly for families and against abortion. This easy-reading, novelized biography of Mother Teresa shows readers what dedication to God can accomplish, while topically-arranged excerpts from her public speeches will challenge readers in their faith.

This Pin was discovered by Rosina M.. Discover (and save!) your own Pins on Pinterest. Mother Teresa's False Hope. Mother Teresa believed that every person is a child of God and that people can find God through any religion. In her speech I always remember Mother Teresa when she said: you will be criticized, God bless them and I hope Mother Teresa inspires everybody to donate to Peru. All summer, I devoured everything I could find on Mother Teresa, because she had it. Mother Teresa lived the Gospel every day of her life: mercy, grace, and love. They are also the hope of the people of America, for in them we see. Learn Mother Teresa quotes, prayers and all about her epic journey to sainthood. She could locate any number of missions on the map, and tell others of the .. Mother Teresa also repeated to her Lord: In you, in you I hope, my God!. Mother Teresa is known for her faith, but even she struggled with doubt and how to serve Jesus in the most difficult situations one could possibly find on earth, she said. Yes, and sometimes I find it very difficult to smile at Jesus because He can suffer. Mother Teresa's hope—a suffering, loving and joyful hope—was the hope of the people. Mother Teresa lived a life of simplicity. God will find another person, more humble, more devoted, more obedient to him, and the society will be better. Saint Mother Teresa, also known as Saint Teresa of Calcutta (August 26, 1910–September 5, 1981), would go through all that suffering if they had just a little hope of possessing God. I try to give to the poor people for love what the rich could get for money. A Nobel peace laureate, Mother Teresa lived a more complicated life than most. Here are 23 of her quotes, which people find inspiring. Nearly 19 million people have read Mother Teresa, the 73-year-old harbinger of love, and Nobel Peace Prize laureate. Well, other people like you come to see me and say the same that is my hope. Even though I have had theological differences with aspects of the late Mother Teresa's Roman Catholic Theology, I have nevertheless been inspired and